

Mission Statement

Moving men to step up and lead their walk, their family, and their world with the love and grace of Christ.

Values

Leading in our walk with God. We are children of God. We need to develop daily habits of time with God: through reading his word-the Bible, a time of listening, and a time of prayer.

His divine power has given us everything we need for a godly life through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness. Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature, having escaped the corruption in the world caused by evil desires. For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge; and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; and to godliness, mutual affection; and to mutual affection, love. For if you possess these qualities in increasing measure, they will keep you from being ineffective and unproductive in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 1:3-8

Leading our families. We need to follow the example that Christ has given us to lead with love, respect, and grace. We need to put our families before our own needs and lead them spiritually.

He must manage his own family well and see that his children obey him, and he must do so in a manner worthy of full respect. 1 Timothy 3:4

Leading in our world. Get involved in a church, walk along other men. There is strength in numbers. Lead along with us, impact the world around you with the love of Christ.

Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers. Galatians 6: 9-10
